

GREAT VESPERS ON NOVEMBER 13 THE HOLY APOSTLE PHILIP

GREGORY PALAMAS, ARCHBISHOP OF THESSALONICA; NEW-MARTYR CONSTANTINE OF HYDRA; JUSTINIAN THE EMPEROR AND HIS WIFE THEODORA

Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Come, let us worship and fall down before God our King.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

THE PSALM OF INTRODUCTION—PSALM 103

Reader: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, Thou hast been magnified exceedingly. Confession and majesty hast Thou put on, Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment, Who stretchest out the heaven as it were a curtain; Who supporteth His chambers in the waters, Who appointeth the clouds for His ascent, Who walketh upon the wings of the winds, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.

Who establisheth the earth in the sureness thereof; it shall not be turned back forever and ever. The abyss like a garment is His mantle; upon the mountains shall the waters stand. At Thy rebuke they will flee, at the voice of Thy thunder shall they be afraid.

The mountains rise up and the plains sink down, unto the place where Thou hast established them. Thou appointedst a bound that they shall not pass, neither return to cover the earth. He sendeth forth springs in the valleys; between the mountains will the waters run. They shall give drink to all the beasts of the field; the wild asses will wait to quench their thirst. Beside them will the birds of the heaven lodge, from the midst of the rocks will they give voice.

He watereth the mountains from His chambers; the earth shall be satisfied with the fruit of Thy works. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and green herb for the service of men, to bring forth bread out of the earth; and wine maketh glad the heart of man. To make his face cheerful with oil; and bread strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of the plain shall be satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon, which Thou hast planted. There will the sparrows make their nests; the house of the heron is chief among them. The high mountains are a refuge for the harts, and so is the rock for the hares.

He hath made the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night, wherein all the beasts of the forest will go abroad; young lions roaring after their prey, and seeking their food from God. The sun ariseth, and they are gathered together, and they lay them down in their dens. Man shall go forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

The earth is filled with Thy creation. So is this great and spacious sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, small living creatures with the great. There go the ships; there this leviathan, whom Thou hast made to play therein. All things wait on Thee, to give them their food in due season; when Thou givest it them, they will gather it. When Thou openest Thy hand, all things shall be filled with goodness; when Thou turnest away Thy face, they shall be troubled.

Thou wilt take their spirit, and they shall cease; and unto their dust shall they return. Thou wilt send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created; and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let the glory of the Lord be unto the ages; the Lord will rejoice in His works. Who looketh on the earth and maketh it tremble, Who toucheth the mountains and they smoke. I will sing unto the Lord throughout my life, I will chant to my God for as long as I have my being.

May my words be sweet unto Him; I will rejoice in the Lord. O that sinners would cease from the earth, and they that work iniquity, that they should be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God. (THRICE)
O our God and our Hope, glory to Thee!

“O LORD, I HAVE CRIED” IN TONE SIX

Choir: O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me; hear Thou me, O Lord. O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me. Give ear to the voice of my supplication when I cry out unto Thee: hear Thou me, O Lord.

Choir: Let my prayer be set forth before Thee as the incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice; hear Thou me, O Lord.

- + Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a protecting door round about my lips.
- + Incline not my heart to evil words, to make excuses in sins.
- + With men that work iniquity; and I will not communicate with the choicest of them.
- + The just man shall correct me in mercy and shall reprove me; but let not the oil of the sinner anoint my head.
- + For my prayer also shall still be against the things with which they are well pleased; their judges falling upon the rock have been swallowed up.

- + They shall hear my words, for they are sweet; as when the thickness of the earth is broken upon the ground, their bones are scattered by the side of hell.
- + But to Thee, O Lord, Lord, are mine eyes; in Thee have I put my trust, take not away my soul.
- + Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and the traps of the workers of iniquity.
- + Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst I alone escape.
- + I cried unto the Lord with my voice, with my voice unto the Lord, did I make my supplication.
- + I poured out my supplication before Him; I showed before Him my trouble.
- + When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then Thou knewest my path.
- + In the way wherein I walked have they secretly laid a snare for me.
- + I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me.
- + Refuge failed me; no one cared for my soul.
- + I cried unto Thee, O Lord; I said: Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
- + Attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low.
- + Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.

Verse 10. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Thy name.

Verse 9. The righteous shall wait for me until Thou recompense me.

Verse 8. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord, Lord hear my voice.

Verse 7. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

For St. Philip in Tone Six

Verse 6. If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? For with Thee there is forgiveness.

Love of God in active deed didst thou establish, O Philip, as the means of thine ascent to the end of pure and true vision of thy God; and the ineffable glory of the Father, thou didst ask of Christ to show to thee. For all of rational nature longeth after its Maker, God; and then thou straightway didst obtain that which thou didst long for, O blessed one, for thou hadst received Christ, the Son, as seal thereof; Whom do thou now with boldness pray in our souls' behalf, O Apostle most renowned.

Verse 5. Because of Thy Name have I waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited upon Thy word, my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

Love of God in active deed ... (repeat above)

Verse 4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch let Israel trust in the Lord.

At all times didst thou employ divine ascents, O Apostle Philip, as did Moses formerly, filled with strong desire to see God in very truth; and thou clearly didst see Him that is His image, and thou didst receive His likeness, Christ. For His beloved Son is the Father's knowledge and certain proof: for of Begetter and of Son but a single essence is recognized; and with godly reverence, by all men is proclaimed Their sovereign might, Their glory, worship, identity, and Their kingdom over all.

Verse 3. For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is abundant redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

At all times didst thou employ ... (repeat above)

Verse 2. Praise the Lord, all ye nations; praise Him, all ye people.

As a tuneful instrument moved by the Spirit's conducting and His verily divine breathings and wise oversight, clearly sounding forth, thou didst sing in the world of the world-transcending Gospel tidings of the Savior Christ, and with thy fiery tongue thou didst burn up error and all deceit like withered grass upon the ground and like dried-up wood swiftly set afire; and, O godly Philip, thou wentest forth to all the world to preach of Christ, the Savior and Sovereign Lord, Who is Master over all.

Verse 1. For His mercy is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

As a tuneful instrument moved ... (repeat above)

DOXASTICON OF ST. PHILIP IN TONE SIX

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Blazing with the lightning-flashes of the Great Light, O Philip, thou didst shine forth as a universal light; and having sought the Father of Lights, thou didst find Him in the Son. For the Light is found in the Light, and He is an identical seal that revealeth the Archetype. Entreat Him, O Apostle, that those who are sealed with His divine Blood may be saved.

THEOTOKION IN TONE SIX

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Who shall not beatify thee, most holy Virgin? Who shall not praise thy birth-giving, free of travailing and pain? For the only Son rising timelessly from the Father, Himself did become incarnate from thee in an inexplicable way. He, Who while God by nature, became for our sakes Man by nature, not divided into two persons, but known by two natures without mixture or confusion. To Him, O noble and most blessed one, plead for the salvation of our souls.

THE HOLY ENTRANCE

(While the Doxasticon is chanted, the following dialogue occurs QUIETLY as the clergy make the entrance.)

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: In the evening and in the morning and at noonday we praise Thee, we bless Thee, we give thanks unto Thee, and we pray unto Thee, O Master of all, Lord Who lovest mankind: Direct our prayer as incense before Thee, and incline not our hearts unto words or thoughts of evil, but deliver us from all who seek after our souls. For unto Thee, O Lord, Lord, are our eyes, and in Thee have we hoped. Put us not to shame, O our God. For unto Thee are due all glory, honor, and worship: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Deacon: Amen.

(When the clergy reach the center of the soleia, the first part of the great censuring begins. After the first part of the great censuring is completed, this next dialogue occurs QUIETLY.)

Deacon: Bless, father, the Holy Entrance.

Priest: Blessed is the entrance to Thy Holy Place, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(After the choir has finished, the following is said ALOUD.)

Deacon: Wisdom! Let us attend!

THE APOSTICHA FOR ST. PHILIP IN TONE EIGHT

O strange wonder, great and marvelous! He that of old netted fish has become an Apostle now who doth fish for mortal men, having been called by God thereto. He caught the nations with nets twined out of words and with the hook of the Cross drew in the world. O what a goodly catch did the godly worker offer unto Christ! Wherefore, we now honor Philip's holy memory.

Verse 1. His sound hath gone forth into all the earth, and his words unto the ends of the world.

O strange wonder, great and marvelous! Apostle Philip is now sent by God, and he goeth forth as a sheep amidst the wolves fearlessly and courageously; by faith, he maketh the wild beasts into sheep and he divinely transfigureth the world. O mighty deeds of faith! O ineffable great wonders! By his prayers, save our souls, O Lord, for Thou alone art merciful.

Verse 2. The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaimeth the work of His hands.

O strange wonder, great and marvelous! Apostle Philip is seen as a well gushing forth with life drawn up in the bucket of wisdom for all those in the world; from him great rivers of doctrines issue forth, from where we drink streaming floods of miracles. O great and fearful signs, which this worker wrought by God's exceeding might! Philip's is the memorial that we acclaim with faith.

DOXASTICON OF ST. PHILIP IN TONE TWO

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Abandoning the things on earth, thou didst follow Christ; and sealed with the in-breathing of the Holy Spirit, thou wast sent by Him to the nations that were perishing, to turn men to the light of the knowledge of God, O Apostle Philip; and having finished the contest of thy divine longing, through manifold torments thou didst commit thy soul to God. Entreat Him, O all-blessed Apostle, that we be granted Great Mercy.

THEOTOKION IN TONE TWO

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Unto thee do I commit mine every hope, O Mother of God; guard me under thy shelter.

THE HYMN OF ST. SIMEON THE GOD-RECEIVER

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
